

FOODSERVICE AND HOSPITALITY

CANADA'S HOSPITALITY BUSINESS MAGAZINE

THE 2017
green
ISSUE

SUSTAINABLY SPEAKING

THE FUTURE IS GREEN FOR OPERATORS

DRIVEN BY DIVERSITY

WHY ONTARIO'S CUISINE IS DIFFICULT TO DEFINE

HEALTHY IS HIP

Building better food is at the core of healthy-eating trends

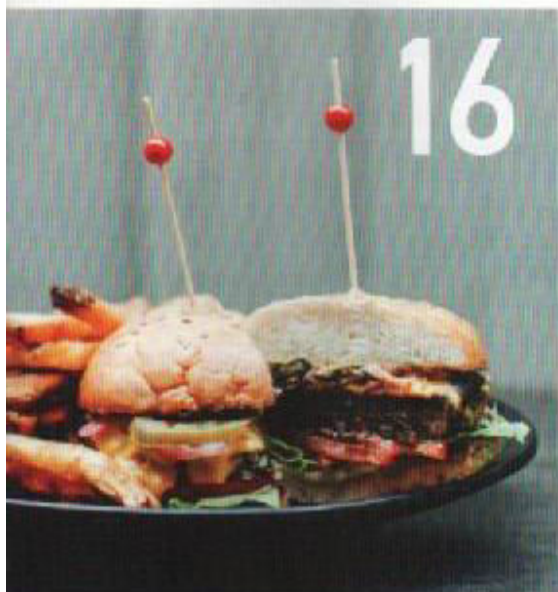

CANADIAN PUBLICATION MAIL PRODUCT SALE AGREEMENT #987654321

APRIL 2017 $4.00

CONTENTS

THE 2017 GREEN ISSUE

37 CALIFORNIA DREAMING
Canadians are embracing wines from the Golden State

39 DIAL IT BACK
Operators are looking for new ways to save energy

FEATURES

15 FORWARD THINKING
NRA Show is looking to the future for its annual trade show

16 HEALTH CHECK
Restaurants are embracing better-for-you menu options

26 GREEN IS THE NEW BLACK
Sustainable practices go a long way to building customer loyalty

32 BRINGING IT ALL TOGETHER
Ontario's cuisine draws inspiration from a number of influences

43 TRENDSPOTTING
Innovative products unveiled at the 2017 NAFEM Show

Langdon Hall's chef Jason Bangarter

DEPARTMENTS

2 FROM THE EDITOR

5 FYI

44 CHEF'S CORNER:
Quang Dang, West Restaurant, Vancouver