

INTERIOR DESIGN[®]

JUNE 2016

above and beyond

ON THE COVER

Boards of cypress native to the Azores conceal the concrete shell of Cella Bar, a restaurant in the Portuguese town of Madalena by FCC Architecture and Paulo Lobo Interior Design. Photography: FG+SG Architectural Photography/Photofoyer.

FEATURES

166 THE POSSIBILITIES ARE INFINITE

by Jane Szita

Andreas Martin-Löf's house near Stockholm overflows with ideas.

174 A PRIME ADDRESS

by Edie Cohen

Douglas Elliman occupies a Los Angeles office by Patrick Tighe.

182 RISING TIDE

by C.C. Sullivan

Architectural innovation comes to the remote Azores with Fernando Coelho and Paulo Lobo's Cella Bar.

190 EXTRA CREDIT FOR CREATIVITY

by Edie Cohen

Gensler earns top marks for its artful business school at the University of Kansas.

200 TO MILAN, WITH LOVE

by Julie Lasky

Patricia Urquiola captures the spirit of her home city at the Room Mate Giulia.

208 MARVELS OF MODERNISM

by Edie Cohen

Take an international tour of mid-century residences.

