

JOURNAL OF ACCOUNTANCY®

A Publication of the American Institute of CPAs
February 2017

I ♥
MY JOB

More firms deploying flexible arrangements,
upgraded technology to retain employees

24

PLUS

Mentoring: Old path to a new position

30

One firm's plan for succession success

34

Surplus budgeting boosts reserves

40

24 | COVER STORY

Flexibility as a retention tool

CPA firms are using employee-friendly working arrangements to aid retention in a challenging labor market, according to the 2016 Management of an Accounting Practice (MAP) survey. 📊

30 | Find a mentor, land a new job

What happens when your mentor offers you a job? Kenneth Ashe, CPA, CGMA, lived that experience.

34 | Providing a future: A succession story

For the good of clients and employees, Virginia-based Wall, Einhorn & Chernitzer PC has made long-term success a priority.

40 | Using surplus budgeting to advance and sustain your mission

A disciplined budgeting approach helped not-for-profit Ducks Unlimited overcome serious financial concerns following the most recent recession.

46 | Figuring out transfer pricing: How to set terms of negotiation between departments

Transfer pricing can be a battleground for competing interests within a company. When those interests aren't balanced, the company could lose out.

52 | Trusts and estates: Uses and tax considerations

Wealth planning with these often highly advantageous tools must be weighed against possible drawbacks of income tax accounting.

22 | COVER STORY

How to discuss long-term-care options with clients

Clients are often reluctant to discuss the vital topic of long-term care. Here's a guide to lead you through what is often a difficult conversation.

28 | What large firms expect from new accounting grads

Recruiters from large firms look for candidates who have strong communication and collaboration skills, can learn new software quickly, and plan to achieve CPA licensure.

32 | Mentoring for executives and managers

Coaching isn't just for lower-level employees. Company and firm leaders can learn from mentors in areas such as time management, strategy, and innovation.

38 | A framework for continuous auditing: Why companies don't need to spend big money

Follow these steps to start or grow data-based auditing practices.

44 | Get revenue recognition right at not-for-profits

Costly mistakes can be avoided by following best practices that lead to proper judgments.

50 | Currency turmoil, price, and profit in global markets

Small and midsize multinational companies can use these strategies to manage the risks of volatile foreign currency exchange rates.

CONTENTS

NEWS DIGEST

- 9 | Client accounting services driving revenue growth
FASB amends restricted-cash reporting rules
Golden reappointed chairman of FASB; PCC gets new members
FASB proposals address modification accounting, liabilities, and equity
FASB proposal would improve hedge accounting, AICPA committee says
AICPA urges changes to employee benefit reporting proposal
GASB tackles asset retirement, proposes implementation guide
FinREC issues revenue recognition working drafts for airline, gaming industries
Key dates; Drafts outstanding

COLUMNS

16 | Professional Liability Spotlight

Take a hike: Ending client relationships
Treat a client termination as if it were a hike through uncharted lands.

18 | Checklist

Addressing a career concern
A rising star used these techniques to overcome concerns about her performance.

20 | From CGMA Magazine

Write a LinkedIn profile that draws in recruiters
Invest time in your LinkedIn profile to create the right impression and attract opportunities.

58 | From The Tax Adviser

Sec. 457(f) plans get helpful guidance
Rules would clarify the types of arrangements that may be currently taxable even while payments are deferred.

60 | Tax Practice Corner

Whether to amend a return
While taxpayers have no duty to correct

an error or omission in a filed return, practitioners must inform them of the consequences.

62 | Tax Matters

- District court reverses emotional distress damages award against the IRS*
IRS warns tax professionals of another email phishing scam
Taxpayers' valuation of land accepted; inability to establish basis limits casualty loss
Taxpayer claims the IRS lost her return; bankruptcy court discharges debt
Streamlined processing of installment agreements is more widely offered
Security Summit introduces 'trusted customer' features
IRS scraps COD 36-month nonpayment testing period

68 | Technology Q&A

This month's column shows how to use different headers and footers within the same Word document, illustrates three ways to calculate an internal rate of return in Excel, and examines email encryption and Gmail security.

74 | Expanding Your App-titude

Stop robo-calls to your cellphone with Nomorobo

75 | Inside AICPA

Where to Turn

76 | The Last Word

Janet Wong, CPA, an audit committee chair with ties to Silicon Valley, discusses best practices for CPA audit committee chairs and the expansion of innovation culture beyond Silicon Valley. 🍌

CPE DIRECT

Another major benefit for JofA readers
Stay current through the JofA and earn CPE credit based on JofA articles—with the CPE Direct self-study subscription program. You can earn up to 48 CPE credits a year. Quarterly CPE Direct study guides combine JofA articles with supplementary materials and exams. An annual subscription is $185 for AICPA members or $236.25 for nonmembers. For more information or to order, visit aicpastore.com/cpe or call 888-777-7077.

This symbol identifies articles in the CPE Direct self-study program.

